

Gelosia Multiplication

This method was used to do long multiplications in tenth century India and fourteenth century Europe. The word "gelosia" comes from the Italian word for a window-covering grid. The worked example is 32×41 .

BHC
1974
031

